

Mrs. Benim
3rd & 4th Grade

Darcie Benim graduated from Gannon University with a Bachelors in both Elementary Education and Special Education and a Masters in Curriculum and Instruction. She was recognized as an All-American scholar and received the National Collegiate Education Award from the United States Achievement Academy.

Darcie participated in the public school system for nearly a decade as an elementary teacher, a partner with the “read to succeed” program and also assisted special needs students. She has also instructed in the Montessori school.

Outside of traditional education experience, Darcie is also a recreational coach for autism & special needs gymnastics. She enjoys cheering on her two children in soccer, attending Bible studies, and cooking.

“Private Christian schooling at LCA means that my children and the students that I teach are growing up with a Biblical worldview and are encouraged throughout the day to foster their relationship and interactions with the Lord.”
