

Mrs. Duffrin
Dyslexia Tutor & Reading Aide

Christina Duffrin attended Bay de Noc Community College for Early Childhood Education. Joining the faculty in 2013, she has taught Leadership Spelling 1 and lead reading groups in different classrooms.

Christina now serves as the Academy's dyslexia tutor and remediates all dyslexic students in grades one through eight. She is certified in the Barton Reading and Spelling Curriculum. In addition, she assists students in third through eighth grade in reading and study skills.

In her leisure time, Christina, her husband, and their children enjoy playing games together. She also leads a weekly women's Bible study.

"Recognizing that children learn differently, I am passionate about seeing children empowered in education and becoming who they are in Christ."
